

Bi-National Learning:

Teachers from Mexico and the U.S. will share their experiences with participants to increase knowledge and cultural competency skills needed to best support binational learners, particularly students who receive their education in both countries. Participants will engage in a variety of activities to share best practices to improve the achievement of binational students. Come share and learn from and with your peers!