

Supporting Academic Language in the Classroom

CLDE staff from CDE will present review principles of language acquisition and present research-based instructional strategies that can be used as linguistic scaffolds in a wide range of lessons. In the morning, teachers will discuss case studies from research and learn instructional practices to support access to content in the classroom. There will be ample time to review resources and incorporate linguistic scaffolds into lesson plans for the upcoming school year. K-12 teachers and coaches welcome.

English Learner Quality Standard 5.10 II Element A -2hrs

English Learner Quality Standard 5.10 II Element B - 1hrs