

SPED Law

In the SPED Law class we will be diving into the spirit of IDEA. We will look at the six pillars of IDEA and how these legal requirements play out in school every day. We will be reviewing some legal cases that have interpreted the law providing schools guidance. The class will evaluate the most recent state complaints in Colorado and discover how hearing officers are interpreting IDEA and making decisions for school districts and students with disabilities. Please bring your laptops.